Port and Harbor offices must move to accommodate Hwy. 603

BY DENA BISNETTE

The four-laning of Highway 603 will displace the offices of the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission, leaving officials with the problem of finding a new location.

The problem was discussed Tuesday at a special meeting that included representatives of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, the Hancock Medical Center Board of Directors and the port and harbor commission.

No decision was made, particularly in view of the new information that is expected to be provided at a public hearing on the highway project Thursday night.

In addition, the group informally agreed that the Hancock County School Board should also be asked about the matter, and that any decision should be delayed until all four boards have had a chance to discuss possible relocating arrangements, Board of Supervisors President and Beat Two Supervisor Ronald Cuevas said.

The State Highway Department personnel at the hearing, set for 7 p.m. at the Jourdan River Shores Community Center, are expected to provide information that will influence any decision to be made.

Port and Harbor Executive Director Harold Olsen explained, "We don't even know which end they'll start on. If they start down here (at US-90) we may not have long, but if they start up at Interstate 10 it could be a year or so down the road."

The commission already has a committee that has been looking at relocating. The committee, consisting of Commission President Ronald Artigues, Nancy Gex and David McDonald, is looking for other quarters because the trailer presently housing the offices is no longer adequate.

Office and storage space is in short supply and even the meeting room is no longer large enough, Artigues said.

"We entertained a Fortune 500 company out here and we were stepping all over each other. It was embarrassing," he explained.

In addition, the commission has little visibility at its present location behind Waveland Resort Inn and visibility is needed to aid recruiting of new industry, Olsen added.

Cuevas said the board of supervisors, also represented at the meeting by Beat Five Supervisor Michael Ladner, has informally discussed the matter and would like to locate the commission offices on land that already belongs to the county, rather than going to the expense of purchasing a piece of privately owned property and taking it off the tax rolls.

Two possible sites discussed were the front of the Hancock Medical Center site and the administration building at Stennis Airpark, which is currently occupied by the Hancock County School District offices.

Among the eight goals established by the supervisors when the new administration took over in January was the construction of a county offices building for those agencies which are not housed in the courthouse or the nearby county offices buildings or which presently have inadequate quarters.

Among those agencies are the Hancock County Welfare Department, housed in a dilapidated former creamery building on Necaise Avenue; Hancock County Child Development Center, which is in rented quarters that are for sale; and Hancock County Health Department, which has outgrown the present building.

Cuevas said the hospital site offers possibilities because it is easily accessible by way of US-90 and is highly visible, and that the hospital could use part of any facility that is built for expansion of services.

Olsen said he feels the building at Stennis would be better, because that building already belongs to the commission and is located at one of the very facilities the commission wants to showcase when entertaining industrial prospects.

Stennis, too, is easily accessible due to its proximity to Interstate 10.

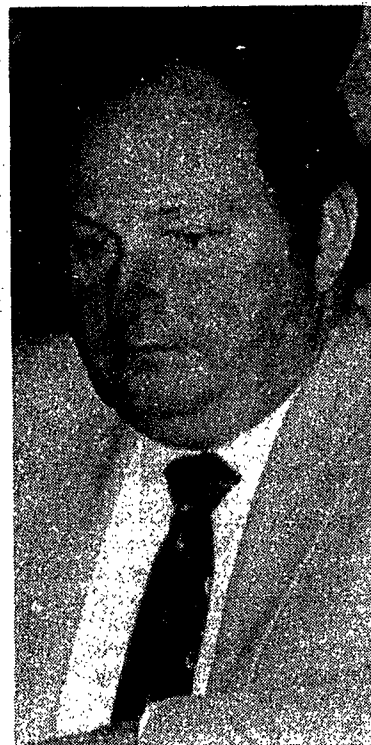

The major problem with the administration building at Stennis, Cuevas said, is that the school offices would have to be moved again.

The offices were moved from the Youth Court building in Bay St. Louis to Stennis about three years ago.

The county is obligated by law to provide offices for the school district and would have to pay for new ones if they were added to the plans for a new school being built near the existing vocational-technical center adjacent to Stennis.

Randolph and the school board should be invited to any further meetings about the matter, said

RONALD CUEVAS

Perry Gibson, who represented the hospital board along with Robert Baxter and Hospital Administrator Phillip Wolfe.

According to Robert Genin, attorney for the port and harbor commission, school board representation was not requested at Tuesday's meeting because no one realized how involved the school district offices would be.

Gibson said the hospital site has four acres in front and four more in back, not counting existing parking areas, set aside for expansion.

The problem with that site is whether the hospital will need the room, he said.

He said the hospital officials are already considering adding a dialysis center. Although the idea of the port and harbor offices and such a center sharing space was considered, Gibson wanted to know what would happen if the center needed room to grow.

Cuevas said a building could be constructed with that in mind and the hospital could eventually take it over.

Gibson provided a short history on why the hospital had had to move rather than expand at the old Hancock General Hospital site, explaining that it was largely a matter of the county not having purchased enough acreage in the first place.

"We need to look at least 25 years ahead. We're in the process of asking Hospital Corporation of America for a master plan for the hospital's development now. This dialysis building, we didn't foresee that," he said.

Five years from now we may have to have a special AIDS unit, or we may need an intermediate care facility for the elderly later on."

Another suggestion was the old post office in downtown Bay St. Louis, which was recently vacated when the new building on US-90 opened.

That suggestion was dismissed after a brief discussion indicating that building is too small and parking is inadequate.

The old hospital was suggested but that alternative was dismissed with laughter and the remark, "It leaks."

Olsen said the Port and Harbor Commission would like to have new quarters in less than one year, whether they are in a new building or an existing building.

He agreed that cooperation of all entities involved is key.

"If nothing else, it's sitting down and talking. Not a lot of that has been done before," Olsen pointed out.

"When we're out there promoting economic development, we're also promoting quality of life and that's the services, the hospital and the schools included."

"We don't want to cause problems for either one."

"Whatever we resolve, it's going to be the best for everybody," he added.

Willie Bradley appointed to Bay St. Louis School Board

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Willie "Zeke" Bradley, 51, of Bay St. Louis will replace Reginald Robinson on the Bay St. Louis

Waveland School District Board of Trustees.

Bradley was recommended by Bay St. Louis Mayor Victor J. Frankiewicz Jr. and approved by the city council Tuesday night.

His five-year term on the board will begin March 5 when Robinson's term expires.

Bradley retired last year after 27 years in the school system. He taught physical education and drivers education, first at Valena C. Jones High School and then at Bay Senior High.

He also has coached football, girls track and girls basketball.

Bradley says serving on the school board will be a challenge, but one that he willingly accepts.

"I will do every thing I can to help improve the education program in the Bay St. Louis school system," he said.

Frankiewicz said he had recommended Bradley because of his knowledge and interest in the school system.

"He has initiative to work toward unifying the system which currently is in turmoil and will continue to promote the many changes now in progress," he added.

Frankiewicz also said administrators and teachers in the system are comfortable with Bradley and know he is a calm and reasonable individual.

Prior to beginning teaching, Bradley served two years in the U.S. Army.

He has a AA teaching certificate.

Bradley received his bachelor's degree from Xavier University and his master's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is a native of Marion County and attended school in the public school system there.

Bradley is currently the chairman of the Bay St. Louis Housing Authority and is an active member of the Valena C. Jones United Methodist Church.

He is married to the former Annie Haynes and has two children, ages eight and 10, who attend Bay Catholic Elementary School.

Prior to Bradley's approval by the council, a recommendation submitted by Frankiewicz to appoint Phillip Williams to the school board was denied.

Council members Charles Johnson, John Wilkerson and Wilmer Seymour voted against the recommendation.

Following the vote Wilkerson told Williams who attended the meeting his reasons for voting against the recommendation were not of a personal nature.

Johnson also stated he had not voted against the recommendations because of personal objections to Williams.

"If the whole matter had been handled differently the conflict would not have happened," Johnson said.

Johnson said he had asked the mayor for names of people being considered for the appointment for several months and when he was not supplied a list, went out in the community himself seeking possible appointees.

"The community helped me make this decision," he added.

Frankiewicz says he recommended Williams because, "He is an independent minded citizen who is active in community affairs and shows a strong desire to see his community improve."

"I believe Williams is a very mature decision maker and will bring to the school board a fresh view of how successful the school system can be and how it can better serve the community," he said in recommending Williams.

Frankiewicz also said his decision was a difficult one because of

Louisiana native brings Wall Street to Bay

A 35-year-old Natchitoches, La. native has brought Wall Street to Bay St. Louis with the opening of a US-90 branch of a major national brokerage firm.

Craig Foster arrived in Bay St. Louis last May bringing with him licenses from the New York Stock Exchange and the National Association of Securities Dealers.

Foster is an investment representative with Edward D. Jones & Company. His branch office at 845-C US-90 makes Bay St. Louis one of over 1,300 towns and cities being served by the company which was founded in 1871 and has the most branches of any New York Stock Exchange member.

Foster said his native Natchitoches is a small northwest Louisiana town that is historic and picturesque much like the Bay St. Louis-Waveland area.

In Natchitoches he accumulated 12 years of banking experience which included being a bank vice-president.

Foster's family includes his wife, Janet and two children, Karyn and Kile. They recently purchased a home on Sunset Drive and already have become involved in the community.

After receiving his initial training as a broker at company headquarters in St. Louis, Mo. Foster served an apprenticeship in Natchitoches at the Jones' office of Shawn Daily, regional manager for Louisiana and Mississippi.

Foster says that the mission of Edward D. Jones is to serve the customer, the individual, with reliable financial products and unequalled service from convenient locations throughout America.

This may explain why a major brokerage firm locates a branch in Hancock County. "We believe the residents here deserve access to the same financial products and services available in major urban areas, plus I would rather live here and raise my family in good surroundings."

Edwards D. Jones & Company's conservative philosophy usually matches that of their clients very well, he says.

"We have to sell reliable investments because we see our clients on the street, at church, or at civic club meetings. Our typical client, average age 55, is looking for income and a safe retirement, or education for their children. They are not looking to 'get rich overnight'."

Consequently, Jones says, he specializes in conservative products, including quality stocks, government bonds, municipal bonds, mutual funds and certificates of deposit along with tax deferred investments.

The firm shies away from dealing in options or futures contracts, he noted.

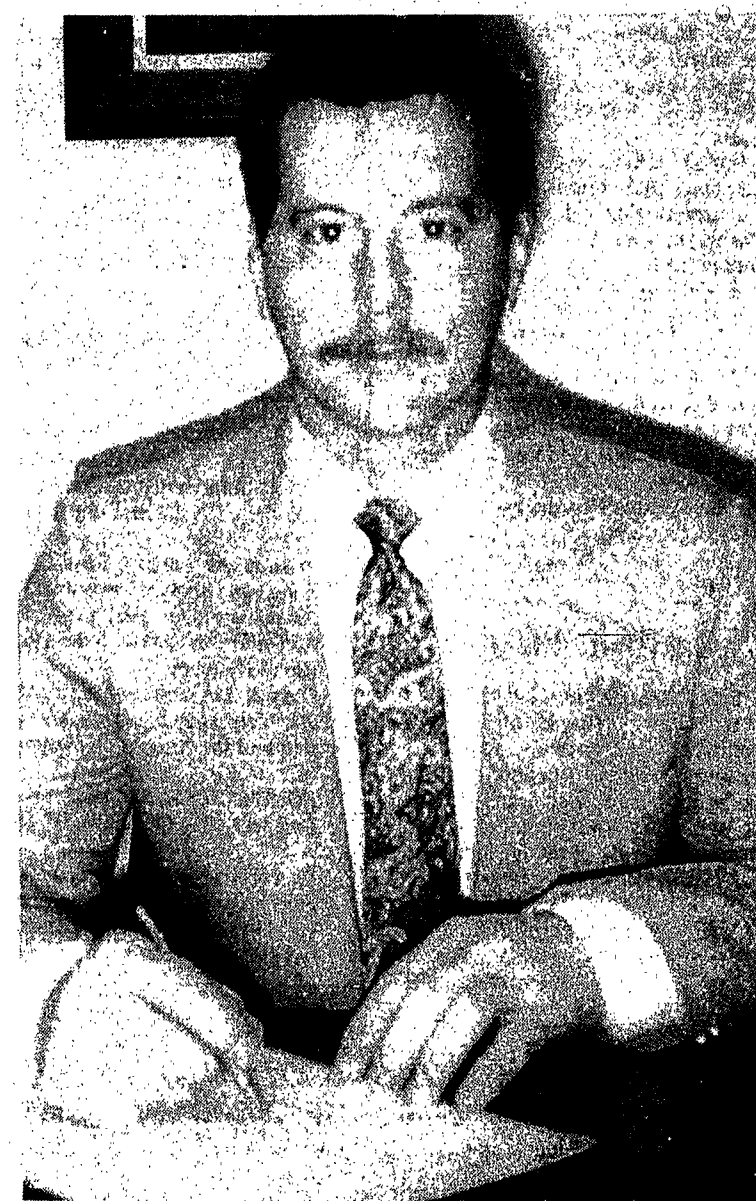

Opening a new branch office is tough, according to Craig Foster. Jones requires that the brokers make at least 1,000 "cold-calls" to local prospects.

Having done more door-to-door calls than required and opening nearly 100 active accounts, Foster is now working more in his office on US-90 servicing the accounts while still making new contacts on a daily basis.

"There is definitely a need for us here," Foster said, "since most local residents have had to go to New Orleans or Gulfport for brokerage service prior to our opening."

The firm does not think the recent decline in the stockmarket changes the basics of investing.

Foster feels that the market offers some value, "but investors must remember to diversify and stick with quality in times like these."

Demos to select precinct delegates

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The Democratic Precinct Caucuses will be held at the respective precincts on Saturday, Feb. 27 at 10 a.m.

At these caucuses delegates and alternates will be chosen to the Hancock County convention to be held on March 5, 10 a.m. at the courthouse, Bay St. Louis, Hilda Bourg, chair of the Democratic Executive Committee said on Wednesday.

Any qualified elector from a precinct may attend, but must declare that he or she is a member of the Democratic Party of the state of Mississippi and is not affiliated with any other political party.

Bourg emphasized, "Each precinct's delegation shall have equal numbers of men and women and shall reflect the racial composition of the Democratic electorate of the precinct."

"Any active Democrat may be chosen as a delegate whether or not he or she is present at the precinct meeting. There will be no proxy voting," Bourg added.

A total of 92 delegates and 92 alternates will be selected to attend the county convention.

Two delegates and two alternates will be selected from each precinct for every 100 votes cast in the Democratic 1987 gubernatorial election.

A change in 1988 from 1984 is the fact that a delegate does not have to declare his or her presidential preference at the precinct of county level, Bourg stated.

Man charged in arson of his own residence

BY DENA BISNETTE

A North Hancock County man has been arrested in connection with an alleged arson that destroyed his own residence.

According to Hancock County Sheriff's Department Investigator Delbert Seay, Gary A. Brewer, 27, of Route Two, Box 438, Carriere, is being held in the Pearl River County Jail on other charges related to use of bad checks, but has been charged with arson in Hancock County.

He will be turned over to Hancock County by Pearl River authorities later, Seay added.

The investigator said the fire that destroyed Brewer's home in the Leetown area occurred at about 6:30 p.m. Saturday and destroyed the house and all its contents.

The fire is being investigated by Hancock County Fire Marshal Jay Marsh and Deputy State Fire Marshal Jesse Lofton.

The sheriff's department is also continuing its investigation with Seay in charge.

Women sought in shoplifting charged with grand larceny

BY DENA BISNETTE

Two Gulfport women, originally being sought on allegations of shoplifting from a Bay St. Louis drugstore, have been charged with grand larceny.

According to Bay St. Louis Police Department Investigator Chuck James, Vanessa A. Slade, 20, and Betty Jo Hudson, 39, both of Gulfport, were being held in the Hancock County Jail Wednesday morning on $1,500 bond each.

Hudson, who originally identified herself as Amma Jackson, is wanted on a parole violation, the investigator added.

Both women are also being held for Pass Christian and Gulfport authorities on additional charges, James said.

He said the two women were spotted by an Eckerd's Drugstore clerk Tuesday afternoon at about 3:40 p.m., allegedly removing items from a cosmetics counter.

The clerk told authorities that the women fled when she approached them, but she was able to supply police with a description and tag number of a red Pinto station wagon they were using.

Two Pass Christian police officers, Archie Sellier and Doug Holquist, stopped the women on US-90 near the entrance to Pass Christian Harbor.

Bay St. Louis Police officers Richard Hannah and James Mallini made the actual arrest, James said.

The investigator stated that the vehicle contained $127.91 in merchandise from Eckerd's, most of which was cologne. However, there was a total of more than $750 in merchandise in the car. James said the items not from the Bay St. Louis store came from stores in Pass Christian and Gulfport.

The incident is still under investigation.

Cooking school to feature nationally known teacher

Terry Thompson displays one of her Cajun-Creole dishes

Diamondhead's First Annual School and Kitchen Tour, set for Saturday, features a nationally known instructor.

The event, a benefit for the Diamondhead Academy Building Fund, begins at Diamondhead Country Club with a demonstration in the Terrace Room by Terry Thompson, cookbook author, cooking school instructor and restaurant consultant.

The program will also feature tours of four of Diamondhead's most elaborate kitchens, which are in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Garic Toca, Mr. and Mrs. Artis James, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zeringue and Mr. and Mrs. William Neff.

Samples of various foods will be available in the kitchen tour locations. The program will also feature lunch in the Country Club's Coral Room and frozen Gourmet-to-Go dishes for sale.

In addition, the Diamondhead community cookbook, "The Cooking School Cookbook," will premier at the event. The book, edited by Thompson, features recipes supplied by Diamondhead residents as well as information on foods, cooking procedures and terms, cookware, children's cooking and microwave cooking.

The cooking school and tour will be presented twice, with the first program beginning at 9:30 a.m. and the second beginning at 12:30. Both will include lunch and tickets are $13 each.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Linda Wallace at 255-9100 or mailing a self-addressed, stamped envelope to her at 7415 Mahalo Hui Drive, Bay St. Louis, Miss., 39520. Tickets must be bought in advance and none will be available at the door.

Thompson, now a resident of Diamondhead, is one of the foremost teachers of Southern-style American cookery in the U.S. She changed her career from interior design to food after her husband was transferred from Austin, Texas, to Louisiana.

After establishing her culinary roots in South Louisiana she began intensive study in classic French cooking theories and techniques with teachers including Francois Dionot of L'Academie de Cuisine.

She called the style resulting from her combination of the classics and South Louisiana cooking "Haute Cajun-Creole."

Thompson has taught more than 10,000 students at cooking schools and seminars all over the U.S. She has written for publications including "Cuisine," "Cook's Magazine" and "Bon Appetit." She has also served as food editor of the "Times of Acadiana," in Lafayette,

Republican women to host congressional candidates

Republican congressional candidates in the fifth District will debate issues Monday at a luncheon sponsored by the Pearl River County Republican Women.

Four of the five GOP congressional candidates have agreed to participate in the event at 11 a.m. at the Woods Restaurant in Picayune.

The fifth candidate, Sheriff Larkin Smith, has been called to Washington on that day, but will participate via television or telephone.

The four candidates who have agreed to appear are Mayor Glen Mitchell of Long Beach, Col. George Robert Hall and Richard Vogel, both of Hattiesburg, and Christopher Roosa of Gulfport.

"We of the PRCRW are very enthusiastic about this debate and hope that it will provide our district's voters with the knowledge they need to vote in this large, important Super Tuesday primary," said Marge McGinnis, president of the group.

The Woods Restaurant is located in a shopping mall on Hwy. 43S one block from where it crosses Hwy. 11.

Buffet luncheon cost is $4.50 for "all you can eat" and the public is invited.

Coast MS

group to meet Saturday

The next meeting of the Gulf Coast Branch of Multiple Sclerosis of Mississippi will be Saturday, Feb. 27, from 2-3:30 p.m. in the Staff Dining Room of Gulf Coast Community Hospital in Biloxi.

Special guest will be Fran Donlin, occupational therapist with the Sun Coast Rehabilitation Center in Gulfport.

She will present information about the value and use of adaptive devices to assist people in the activities of daily living.

A question and answer period will follow her talk.

The afternoon will conclude with a short social period. For additional information contact Dianne Butera: 388-7032, Pat Gillham: 388-6941, or Annette Lawrence (Pascagoula): 588-6303.

If you think of beer just as a tasty beverage, think and think again! Beer is tasty when used in cookery of many sorts, from the Belgian Beef or Pork and Beef Stew, Carbonnade Flamande, to its use as part of the liquids in cooking, to a lighter-than-light beer batter for frying shrimp or other seafoods - and on and on!

Brewing is one of man's oldest occupations. Records of ancient civilizations show that the ancient Egyptians, Chinese and others were brewing and enjoying beer five thousand years ago, and that other countries followed their lead. Beer lends itself especially well to cheese dishes - as in the famed "Welsh Rabbit" - and to seafood mixtures.

I often cook shrimp in a combination beer and water mixture, using three parts of stale beer (open the can or bottle and let the beer sit around awhile and grow "tired") to one part water, adding salt, peppercorns, a bay leaf or two, cayenne, etc., and simmering just a couple or three or four minutes or more until the shrimp are pink and bobbing to the top of the pot. The beer gives a delightful, not quite bitter tang to the shrimp.

There's a soup I like very much, one which makes use of sharp cheese and beer and a few other additions. Here's:

CHEESE SOUP
2 cups (8 oz.) shredded sharp natural Cheddar cheese
2½ cups milk
2/3 cup beer

1 medium onion, chopped
1/4 cup shredded carrots
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup all purpose flour
Dash black pepper, cayenne pepper

Salt, optional

Saute the onions and carrots in the butter or margarine until tender, then add the flour, blending in smoothly, stir in the milk, then the beer, and cook, stirring, over medium heat until the mixture thickens and come barely to a boil.

Add the cheese and seasonings, stirring until melted. (Four to six servings.)

Sometimes I vary this soup by adding chopped, cooked broccoli, adding milk if needed. At other times I add sliced, cooked, smoked sausage or crumbled bacon. And, when I want an extra spicy sort of taste, I add a bit of jalapeno relish or slices of peppers or hot pepper sauce. (Four to six servings.)

Tonight at 7 p.m., the Mississippi State Highway Department will conduct a public hearing on Highway 603, Jourdan River Shores Community Center.

The hearing will deal with location and design on the reconstruction and realignment of Highway 603 (43) from US-90 to I-10.

The public is invited to attend, and we know there are many folks concerned about the four-laning of Highway 603, so there should be a large turnout tonight for the public hearing.

Tonight there will be the second annual Preview Party of the Artists for Animals Art Show at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club from 6 to 9 p.m.

The art will be on display for sale for one week at the Bay St. Louis Library.

Proceeds from the sales will go to the Hancock County Humane Society.

The Humane Society has been very busy over the years trying to help with animal control and are a dedicated group of volunteers.

We are hoping this will be a very successful fundraiser for the organization.

On Monday of this week Hancock County Deputy Sheriff George Burleson issued a ticket to a motorist on I-10 for littering.

We do not know if you know it or not, but a person can receive a fine up to $500 for littering.

The case is scheduled to go to court next week.

We received a note from Alice Little of Diamondhead telling us about the 'Sweethearts On Parade' dinner dance recently held.

The event was for couples who have been married 40 or more years, and it was well attended with some 80 couples.

One couple in attendance was married the longest, 56 years. Reports indicate everyone had a fine time.

Congratulations are in order for the organizers.

In Congress

By Congressman Trent Lott

Many of us will spend this next week watching the Olympics on television. Night after night, we will gather around the set and cheer for the home team. But how are we able to do this?

Through sophisticated satellite technology, ABC and local affiliates are able to bring the U.S. Hockey Team into our living rooms live and in color. But not all of us will witness the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat.

While most of us rely on local television stations to get our news, sports, and entertainment, other, especially those in our rural areas, must rely on satellite dishes.

But as most satellite dish owners will tell you, receiving satellite transmissions is becoming increasingly difficult. More and more signals are being scrambled; jumbled up so rural residents are left in the dark. This must stop.

I am joining with more than 100 of my colleagues in an effort to alleviate this growing problem. I am cosponsoring a bill in the House of Representatives, H.R. 1885, the "Satellite Television Fair Marketing Act of 1987."

This bill would require those who scramble satellite services intended for private viewing to make it available to satellite dish owners.

If these companies sell their programming, the bill would require that they also establish reasonable business criteria so others may qualify to distribute their transmissions.

The bill would further give the Federal Communications Commission authority to establish uniform standards for scrambling and initiate rulemaking to facilitate the provision of network television signals outside the range of broadcast station signals.

The FCC would also be charged with investigating the pricing and distribution terms of businesses selling satellite programming to home satellite antenna owners. This would help determine whether the marketplace is developing in a competitive fashion.

The Senate is working on a similar bill and that is encouraging. It is time to send a signal of our own, a clear unscheduled signal to those programmers who scramble their transmissions.

We must let them know that satellite dish owners should no longer be relegated to the status of second class citizens by the mere fact of their geographic situation. Let the fairness game begin!

MAYOR WORKING—Waveland Mayor John Longo Jr. grabbed a mop to clean up a spill, as Shirley Cox looks on in 'awe'. A very successful Red Beans and Rice dinner was held last Saturday at the Waveland American Legion as one of the events for Waveland's Centennial Celebration. Longo has named a Centennial Committee which has plans for a big event in the next few months to celebrate Waveland's 100 birthday. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

Eyes on Mississippi

By Bill Minor

JACKSON—Nine mostly unknown Democratic candidates in the 4th congressional district race are desperately trying to break out of the pack and survive the Mar. 8 primary.

With campaign money and name recognition scarce commodities, no clear frontrunner has emerged in the contest to name a successor to U.S. Rep. Wayne Dowdy, who gave up the seat to run for the Senate.

So much so, political observers in the district believe that almost any combination of six candidates could wind up in the Mar. 29 runoff.

As most of the hopefuls apparently realize, the black vote in the district is going to be the key in determining which two white candidates will survive the primary.

There are two black candidates among the nine, but both are college students who are not expected to attract much of a following because of their limited campaigning.

While the districtwide black population is 40 percent, black voters are expected to make up an even larger proportion of the vote on Mar. 8, which also is the date of the Super Tuesday presidential preferential primary.

A poll on the question of voter turnout taken by Alan Secrest of Washington, D.C. for Brad Pigott, one of the nine Democratic hopefuls, indicated that blacks will make up 55 percent of the total vote cast on Mar. 8. This obviously means that many white voters in the district who normally vote Democratic will pass up the Democratic primary and vote in the Republican primary, probably in order to back their GOP choice for president.

Strongest bids for black support are apparently being made by Pigott, a 33-year-old Brookhaven funeral home operator and state Rep. Bobby Moak, 29, of Bogie, Chit.

Pigott, whose father is Circuit Judge Joe Pigott of McComb, won the endorsement of the Mississippi Association of Educators, which has over 50 percent black membership. He is also being backed by some key black political activists, including Hinds County supervisor Bennie Thompson.

Thompson, the Democratic National Committeeman from Mississippi who had been an important player in getting black votes for Gov. Ray Mabus in last year's gubernatorial race, has done a radio spot for Pigott.

Lately, Pigott's fund-raising is believed to have eclipsed any of the other candidates in the race.

Patterson, because of his close ties with black leaders on the Democratic state executive committee, had originally thought he had Thompson's support.

Now, Patterson is trying to position himself as a strong backer of State Democratic Chairman Ed Cole, the longtime black Democratic figure whom Patterson had recommended to succeed him last November. A firestorm of black resentment has arisen over Gov. Mabus' apparent plan to replace Cole with a white woman as the party chairman.

Parker early-on hired several bright young black staffers and made strong overtures to the black community in an effort to gather black support. With heavy outlay of his own funds for media exposure in the early going, the personable Parker had become one of the surprises of the campaign.

Lately Parker has dropped off television and there were reports his campaign was trailing off at a critical time as the primary draws closer.

Moak was able to wrangle an endorsement from the AFL-CIO, reportedly using some insider contacts. With it he automatically gets some good support from black unionists in the 4th district. Lately Moak has cast some votes in the Legislature clearly aimed toward black support.

Both Terrell Stubbs, the former state legislator from Mendenhall and Clint Watkins, the mayor of Crystal Springs who lost several members of his family in a tragic gas explosion nearly two years ago, are mounting major bids with the aid of seasoned media consultants and will also be in the thick of the hunt.

The payoff in the 4th seems to be who can come up with the money in the last two weeks to push their campaign over the line ahead of the rest of the pack.

Animal commissioner asks fair assessment of group's performance

February 22, 1988

To The Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis, MS
Dear Sir,

The Hancock Animal Commission was established for the purpose of providing a facility to aid in the enforcement of laws covering animal disease control and stray animal laws.

Twelve of the fifteen commissioners are appointed by the governing bodies of Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Hancock County and these commissioners have no direct public responsibility except through the political bodies that appoint them.

The law requires that the commission hold open meetings; but it does not require that the public participate in the meetings.

Because the commission has always been interested in new ideas and constructive criticism, it has always encouraged public participation within established guidelines.

In order to allow full participation the commission on many occasions has allowed members of the public to participate far beyond its own guidelines.

There are no provisions in the law regarding cleanliness or other conditions in an animal shelter beyond that of not permitting a public hazard.

The only requirements are that they are not physically beaten, tortured, etc.

The rules for animal care at our shelter are certainly well above any such minimal standards and are designed to provide safe, healthy and humane treatment.

The law does not require that the shelter provide medical care and in fact permits the euthanizing of any sick or injured animal without waiting the normal five days.

The commission does in fact provide medical care when the condition of the animal and other factors are deemed to warrant such treatment.

The law does not require that a shelter provide an adoption service. Our shelter does provide an efficient and inexpensive adoption service that on percentage of adoptions ranks at least with the national average.

The law permits the sale of animals as a means of recovering the costs of maintaining such animals. The established rule of our shelter is that no animals are to be sold. Any proof of a violation of this rule by any shelter employee or animal warden will be dealt with severely.

The commission does not claim that its guidelines are always maintained in our Shelter operation and it is always receptive to suggestions as how improvements can be made.

We would ask that before carping criticisms are made, however, that consideration be given as to what the commission does as compared to what it is required to do under the Law.

Incidentally, members of the commission receive no compensation for their services and do not even receive reimbursement for personal expenses incurred in performance of their duties.

Soccer coach teaches true sportsmanship

Feb. 22, 1988

To the Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,

My son started playing soccer in 1987 for Coach Leo Laurant's team.

I figured that this was a good safe sport where he would be able to learn teamwork, fair play and have a good time doing it.

And I wasn't wrong. I thank God that my son got Coach Leo.

He has taught The Burger King Whoppers to play fair, no tripping, no acting like you've been tripped, no intentional shoving, even when the ref's back is turned, to try in no way to hurt or injure another player.

And I'm aware because of this our team will lose some games.

It's sad to think some coaches will allow any behavior to win and sadder to think that the parents don't care as long as they have a winning team.

But when you win using underhanded methods to gain your wants, do you ever really win?

Children's parks are respite for young mothers

Editor
The Sea Coast Echo

Dear Editor,

It only takes one rainy day to make me realize how much I appreciate the new children's parks in Bay St. Louis—and to prompt me to express appreciation to the mayor, members of the Parks and Playgrounds Committee and architect Michael Reeves for their contributions to the project.

Their efforts have created safe playgrounds and recreational areas for the "under T-ball and soccer" crowd, and those of us who tag along find companionship and fresh air.

Report from the Senate

BY SENATOR GENE TAYLOR

Last week, the Senate's attention was focused on two public hearings and numerous committee meetings.

A hearing before the Highways and Transportation Committee on the issue of mandatory seat belts drew more than 100 spectators. Nine persons, including Highway Safety Patrol Troopers, a physician, an accident victim, and former Miss America Susan Akin, testified in favor of a state law requiring drivers and front seat passengers to wear seat belts.

Three bills to this effect have been introduced. Exempted would be rural letter carriers, operators of farm and commercial vehicles, and persons with medical excuses. The penalty for not wearing the seat belt would be a $25 fine to be issued to the person not complying whether it be the driver or passenger. However, the ticket would not be counted on insurance records as the violation would be considered non-hazardous, according to a Highway Patrol spokesman. The law would go into effect on Oct. 1.

Those in favor testified to the numerous instances in which seat belts have saved lives and said that it is a money-saving bill as well as protective of health because of the high cost of care following serious accidents. One speaker likened the legislation to the laws fluoridating water and requiring hunters to wear orange, which he said were controversial and emotional when first enacted.

The one speaker against the bill was a retired truck driver who said he has logged more than 4 million safe miles and resents being told he has to wear a seat belt.

I arranged for a hearing before my Judiciary Subcommittee on my bill to regulate sports agents. The hearing brought coaches and athletic directors from state and private universities who spoke in favor of the bill. They complained about unscrupulous agents who sign college athletes to contracts to represent them in acquiring a pro contract before their college eligibility is up.

They noted that such contracts, which often involve entertaining the athletes lavishly, giving them trips or bonuses or even monthly payments of up to $1,500, void their eligibility with their university under NCAA rules, and, in some cases, the university can be punished by probation and/or fines. They said that the legislation is needed to regulate the sports agents because the NCAA and the pro organizations

Irrigation Design topic of Melby book

"Simplified Irrigation Design" is the title of a new book by Mississippi State University landscape architect Pete Melby.

The 188-page publication, available in both paperback and hardcover from PDA Publishers Corp. of Mesa, Ariz., was written not only for landscape architects and other professionals, but for anyone interested in or responsible for grounds maintenance. Melby developed the book with the assistance of a $5,000 research grant from the Toro Irrigation Co. of Riverside, Calif., which has annual-ly provided scholarships for MSU students. A 10-year member of the faculty and teacher of several design courses, he holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from Louisiana State University.

Arranged and written so the sub-ject is easy to learn, the book focuses on all aspects of irrigation design. Also covered are cost estimating, and specification and irrigation guidelines.

Melby said the current demand for professional landscaping is such that a thorough knowledge of irriga-tion can offer a "tremendous" career potential.

"Planting is now an integral marketing component of all new land development and irrigation assures the health and longevity of plants in these projects," he said.

"As a result, the need for persons with irrigation knowledge is ex-plosive," he said.

Report from the Senate

have no authority to do so... This legislation was initiated by former University of Southern Mississippi Head Football Coach Jim Carmody.

As we continue to do the bulk of our work in committees for the next few weeks, the following are some of the bills which are under considera-tion:

► A bill to allow school boards to bor-row 16th Section principal fund money to purchase school buses.

► A bill to prohibit hazing at any educational institution in regard to a student being initiated into or becoming affiliated with any organization.

► A bill to eliminate the state park entrance and parking fees for senior citizens.

► A bill to require drivers to dim their headlights whether ap-proaching another vehicle from the front or rear.

► A bill to delete the requirement that counties hold persons in need of mental treatment until state facilities are available, but if they do house them, the county is to be re-im-bursed by the state department of mental health.

► A bill allowing a person to choose the hospital where he wishes to be treated without penalty as to rate of insurance reimbursement.

State unemployment rate increases

JACKSON—The January jobless rate for Mississippi rose to 10.6 percent according to the Mississippi Employment Security Commission. This rate was one and nine tenths percentage points above one month ago, when the rate stood at 8.7 percent.

This was 1.9 percentage points below the 12.5 percent reported January 1987. Continued seasonal decreases in agriculture, wholesale and retail trade and construction work led to the seasonal increase in unemployed from December.

Place of residence employment for January stood at 1,054,300 in a labor force of 1,179,300. There were 5,800 less people employed in January than last month and 49,400 more than January 1987.

Manufacturing establishments provided 232,500 jobs, down slightly from the 232,600 reported in December. Nonmanufacturing businesses provided 643,000 jobs in January.

Manufacturing jobs decreased 100 from one month ago and increased dramatically 10,700 from January 1987.

Nonmanufacturing provided 9,100 less jobs this month than last month but 22,500 more than last year.

This monthly employment of 643,000 represents the largest number of jobs ever supported by nonmanufacturing industries during January. The seasonal decrease in trade of 8,200 represented 68.1 percent and 1,600 decrease in construction represented 17.6 percent of the loss in nonmanufacturing jobs from December.

There were 116,261 claims filed in January 1988 as compared to 100,832 during December and 159,168 one year ago. There were 6,645 job openings received in January compared to 6,189 last month and 6,937 one year ago. Of those received 5,394, 5,597 and 5,499 were filled by local employment services offices.

Q. How many of Mississippi's 82 counties have an Army National Guard unit?

A. There is at least one Mississippi Army National Guard unit in 74 of the 82 counties. Some counties have several Guard units.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, This country was founded on the principles of freedom and equality, as embodied in the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The promises of that great document were largely denied to the black population of this country for most of our history; and

WHEREAS, The struggle to achieve equal protection under the law, and the struggle to wipe out institutionalized racism has been a long and difficult one; it has called dedicated people of all races to sacrifice their life in the Civil Rights movement; and

WHEREAS, The Reverend Martin Luther, King, Jr. was a premier leader of that movement, and he gave his life to the cause of liberty; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting for his memory to be kept alive in this community as an inspiration to its progress;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED, That the public park on Washington St. in the City of Bay St. Louis be hereby named the "Martin Luther King, Jr. Park" in his memory; and

BE IT FURTHER PROCLAIMED, That by being so named, this park can be an everpresent reminder to the young people of this community, that their freedoms were hard fought and won at a high price.

PREPARING FOR A FIGHT—Michael Jeffries, left, acts as a sparring partner for State Trooper Houston Dorr of Kiln. Dorr, who recently represented the Mississippi Highway Patrol in an exhibition boxing match in Hattiesburg, is trying his talents at full-contact karate. The six-foot, 179-pound trooper is scheduled to fight six-foot-one, 195-pound Rick Bass of Hattiesburg as the main event of a 7 p.m. exhibition Saturday at Hawkins Junior High School Gymnasium in Hattiesburg. His trainer is Bay St. Louis Police Chief Ray Murphy and a fellow trooper, Fred Keel, will serve as his cornerman. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Sunburst pageant scheduled

The Miss Mississippi Sunburst USA Pageant will be held at the Holiday Inn airport in Gulfport March 5 at 10 a.m. and at La Font Inn March 6 in Pascagoula at 2 p.m. All local winners will automatically qualify for the International Pageant to be held in Orlando, Fla. in August.

The pageant has two divisions, the Baby Contest and the Miss Sunburst USA. Division age groups range from infant to age 27. Categories are for male and female in the baby contest.

The pageant directors Stephnye Pegram, model and actress, and Kimberly Morgan, Broadway dancer, have stated they believe Mississippi can produce winners in all categories at the Internationals. More than $300,000 worth of gifts and prizes will be awarded at the finals.

For information call Sunburst USA toll free 1-800-3565-9724.

Waveland artist's work cited in juried show

Sandi Myers Engelbracht, a Waveland artist, received an honorable mention award in the New Orleans Art Association's Juried Members' Show for her piece titled 'Thou Shalt Obey.'

Two of Ms. Engelbracht's works are included in this show which can be viewed through Feb. 28 at the World Trade Center in New Orleans. 'Thou Shalt Obey' depicts two dogs' experiences with obedience training through images cut out of silk-screened paper.

Subliminally, the cartoonish images show the humor of dog training from both the trainer's and trainee's perspectives.

The second work of art is titled 'Sea-ing Things.' This work depicts an abstract, underwater seascape of seaweed, barnacles and other sea-like images cut from silk-screened paper.

Ms. Engelbracht's works are available through this show and Le Mieux Galleries, Inc.

Lady Wildcats defeat GCJC Bulldogs

Before a huge White Coliseum crowd, the Pearl River Lady Wildcats made it a sweep over the Gulf Coast Lady Bulldogs with a big 73-68 win at home Thursday night.

The "big girls" made the difference in the game for the Lady 'Cats, with Antrice McGill and Norma Pendarvis teaming up for a combined total of 55 points (McGill led all all scores with 37, while Pendarvis, playing in her last home game as a Lady 'Cat, poured in 18). Mary Henry pumped in eight points to help lead the charge. Alice Lawrence led the way for the Lady 'Dogs with 18 points (14 of those coming in the first half), while Clara James had 15 and Chisty Bartholomew 11 for the losers.

The Lady 'Cats shot out of the gate early, with four free throws by McGill and some hot shooting from Mary Henry and Pendarvis. It was a five-point lead for the Lady 'Cats, 10-5, when Clara James got into the act with a flurry of points, helping to fuel the Lady 'Dogs to a four-point lead, 27-23, with 7:35 left in the first half. Soon, though, the McGill-Pendarvis connection was working, with big inside play and fouls drawn by the Lady 'Dogs.

This translated into big free throw shooting, and the four-point deficit turned into a big eight-point lead, 41-33, with just under a minute to go before intermission. A three-point bucket by Hope Bonney and two free throws by Glinda Jones narrowed the lead down to three, 41-38, at the intermission. McGill and Pendarvis combined for 33 of the 41 points scored in the first half for the Lady 'Cats.

The first four minutes of the second half were totally dominated by the Lady Bulldogs. Two consecutive steals by the Gulf Coast defense plus mistakes by the Lady 'Cat offense accounted for an early eight-point run for the Lady 'Dogs. With 16:10 left in the game, Gulf Coast led 46-43, when PRC head coach Polly Kirkland picked up a technical foul. The free throw was made, and the momentum seemed to swing toward Gulf Coast.

However, the technical foul turned out to be a boost for the Lady 'Cats, as they outscored Gulf Coast 18-5 in the next eight minutes of play to eventually put the game out of reach. Big baskets by Henry, McGill, and Pendarvis the rest of the way proved to be the difference, as the River rolled to an 18-6 mark on the year going into the South Division tournament.

Head coach Polly Kirkland was pleased with her team's performance, and had this to say about how the Lady 'Cats snagged another big victory. "We got their big people in foul trouble, and we kept taking it into Antrice and Norma."

"We kept forcing it in because we knew they either had to go ahead and foul us or let us shoot the ball. So, we kept taking it in there and kept getting the free throws or the baskets. At the beginning of the game, we took the ball inside a couple of times and we were getting fouled on. I saw that it was going to work that way, you see, we were either going to pick up the two points or they were going to pick up the foul."

THE BLUES, a musical tradition still evident, still evolving, is celebrated in the second annual Mississippi Delta Blues Festival at Freedom Village near Greenville. Highlights of this festival can be seen in the performance documentary, 'Mississippi Delta Blues,' produced by the Mississippi Center for Educational Television for the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS), at 10 p.m. Tuesday, March 1 on Mississippi ETV, ch. 19. Among the 14 blues artists in the program are, clockwise beginning at top left, Bettie Fikes, Sam Chatmon, host Willie Dixon, Napoleon Strickland and Clyde Maxwell.

PRM, ETV to simulcast Dizzy Gillespie tribute

Jazz legend "Dizzy" Gillespie is honored by a glittering array of jazz superstars as 'Great Performances' presents 'Wolf Trap Salutes Dizzy Gillespie: An All-Star Tribute to the Jazz Master,' a stereo simulcast of PRM and Mississippi ETV, Friday, Feb. 26, at 9 p.m.

Highlights of the tribute include Gillespie performing with pianist

Oscar Peterson, vocalist Carmen McCrae, saxophonist Benny Carter and trumpeter Wynton Marsalis.

The list of other jazz stars on hand is a virtual Who's Who of the music scene: Sonny Rollins, James Moody, Flora Purim, Airtio Moreira, Jon Faddis, Freddie Hubbard, J. J. Johnson and many more. Also featured are film clips of Gillespie with Louis Armstrong and Charlie Parker and footage of his popular worldwide tours.

To enjoy this retrospective of jazz and be-bop classics, PRM listeners should tune their televisions to Mississippi ETV and turn the volume down, then tune their radios to PRM and turn the volume up.

Officials rule self-defense in shooting death

BY DENA BISNETTE

Authorities investigating the gunshot death of a Standard man say the incident was "a self-defense shooting."

According to Hancock County Sheriff's Department Investigator

Delbert Seay, Frank B. Delsied, 49, of Route 1, Pass Christian, was shot in the chest during a family altercation Sunday by his son, Frank M. Delsied, 28, of the same address.

Seay said that two guns were in-involved in the incident and that the older man was apparently threatening his son and other family members with one of the weapons when the shooting occurred.

Frank B. Delsied's wife and another son were home at the time.

Delsied apparently had made previous threats during the two days preceding the shooting, Seay added.

"Investigation of all witnesses at the scene show this was a self-defense shooting. It is still under investigation and no arrests have been made. As is usual with such cases, it

District attorney announces

Alonzo Sturgeon, district attorney for the sixth Circuit Court District of Mississippi, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination as Supreme Court judge from the Southern District.

Sturgeon is a native of Adams-Wilkinson Counties, is married to the former Betty Moore; and they have one son, Holmes.

An honor graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi, Sturgeon attended Tulane University Law School on a full academic scholarship for two years, and received his LL.B. in law from the University of Mississippi.

He completed further graduate study in government and history at Southern Mississippi and Ole Miss.

Sturgeon, a practicing attorney for 27 years, has served as a member of the Mississippi House of Representatives. He also served as Chancery Court clerk, clerk of the Board of Supervisors, auditor, treasurer and Youth Court referee for Wilkinson County.

Sturgeon has served as director of admissions and as a teacher of law, criminal justice, government, history, and business for Southern Mississippi.

During the last 10 years, Sturgeon has served as district attorney for five Southwest Mississippi counties.

Sturgeon is a veteran of the U.S. Army, having served both as an enlisted man and officer during the Korean War. He also served in the Mississippi National Guard, and is a member of the Day-King V.F.W. Post at Crosby.

An outstanding Young Man of America nominee, Sturgeon holds a number of awards of academic and governmental achievement, including Phi Delta Kappa, professional education, Phi Kappa Phi, Academic; Phi Gamma Mu, Social Science; Phi Alpha Theta, history; and Phi Delta Phi, law.

He was a charter member of the Woodville Jaycees, has served on the Board of Directors of the Southwest Mississippi Economic Development District, Southwest Mississippi Mental Health Commission, and served on the Regional Council for Law Enforcement Administration.

Sturgeon belongs to the Church of Christ and is a member of Harmony Lodge No. 1, F & AM Natchez; Woodville Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; and Loyal Order of Moose, Natchez Lodge.

His is also a member of the Adams County and Mississippi Bar Associations, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, National District Attorneys Association and the Mississippi Prosecutors Association.

In making his announcement, Sturgeon said, "Good Supreme Court judges are not born as such; they are the product of education, experience and growth. I have spent 30 years studying the law, making the law, administering the law, and prosecuting those who violate the law; I am prepared to help make Supreme Court decisions that the people of this state can be proud of."

IRS slates small business tax workshops in Gulfport

Two free tax workshops for self-employed people and small business owners will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. on Mar. 1 and 3 at Gulfport High School Auditorium, 100 Perry Street, the Internal Revenue Service says.

These workshops are offered as public services through the Internal Revenue Service's Taxpayer Education Program and cosponsored by the Small Business Development Center and the Center of Community Education to alert new and established business owners of their Federal tax responsibilities.

On Mar. 1, the instructor will cover such topics as types of business organizations, recordkeeping and accounting practices, income and deductions on the Schedule C, self-employment tax, and estimated tax. Practical exercises will teach small business owners how to determine taxable income and how to complete required tax forms.

The workshop on Mar. 3 will cover employment taxes. Practical exercises will include Forms 940 and 941.

Participants will also learn about the advantages and disadvantages of sole proprietorships, partnerships and corporations.

EXPERIENCE COUNTS.

THE HEART TEAM'S HERE.

St. Tammany Parish's Pioneer in Cardiology Treatment.

In 1985, Slidell Memorial Hospital pioneered cardiology treatment in St. Tammany Parish with the development of the area's first comprehensive cardiac treatment and rehabilitation center. Since then, we've been recognized as the first hospital in St. Tammany Parish to perform bypass surgery, as well as the area's first hospital to perform cardiac catheterization. Today, Slidell Memorial continues to provide residents throughout the region with the specialized equipment and experienced professionals needed to handle all types of cardiology problems, from diagnosis to rehabilitation.

St. Tammany Parish's Most Experienced Cardiac Surgical Team.

Since opening our Cardiology Center, Slidell Memorial Hospital's Heart Team has performed over 2300 cardiology procedures and over 250 bypass surgeries. With many of the area's most experienced professionals, our Heart Team includes eight highly trained cardiac surgeons and cardiologists, who lead a team of nearly 100 other heart specialists—cardiac technicians and nurses and rehabilitation therapists. Together, Slidell Memorial's Heart Team has the proven experience that counts in cardiac care.

St. Tammany Parish's Latest Cardiac Techniques and Technology.

Since opening in 1985, Slidell Memorial's Cardiology Center has maintained the latest in cardiac procedures and equipment. Our comprehensive cardiology services include:

- Stress Testing
- Bypass Surgery
- Diagnostics
- Cardiac Catheterization
- Ultrasound
- Balloon Angioplasty
- Medical ICU
- Fully-Equipped Surgical Facilities

St. Tammany Parish's Most Advanced Cardiac Rehabilitation Center.

To assure the highest level of recovery, cardiac rehabilitation must pick up where surgery stops. Slidell Memorial's complete 3-Phase Rehabilitation Program does just that.

1. Complete Pre-Surgery Overview
2. Post-Surgery Education and Exercise

Program Monitored by Cardiologists and Exercise Physiologists

3. Outpatient Program for Behavioral and Physical Reconditioning (Daily Scheduling Available to Fit Patient Needs)

With rehabilitation designed to meet all the recovery needs of the cardiac patient, Slidell Memorial's 3-Phase Program plays the vital role of transitioning the cardiac patient from surgery to healthy, comfortable, everyday living.

Top international judges selected for U.S. Yacht Club Challenge

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif.— A distinguished panel of international yacht racing judges has been selected to oversee the competition at the 1988 U.S. Yacht Club Challenge, which will determine the best yacht club in the nation.

The event, organized and hosted by the Newport Harbor Yacht Club and sponsored by Rolex Watch U.S.A., which has been presenting sponsor of the biennial regatta since its inception in 1984, will be sailed in the waters of Newport Beach April 6-10.

The three-member jury will be chaired by Ronald L. Ward of Maryland, an IYRU judge and immediate past president of the USYRU, and IYRU judge Joseph E. Tapert of Michigan.

Ward's colleagues on the panel will be Charles M. Kober of California, an IYRU judge and immediate past president of the USYRU, and IYRU judge Joseph E. Tapert of Michigan.

Selected to serve as alternate judges are William P. Ficker, an IYRU judge and staff commodore of the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, and USYRU judge Arthur V. Strock of California.

In announcing the jury selections, Donald Russell, chairman of the 1988 U.S. Yacht Club Challenge, commented, "We made a concerted effort to select judges of the highest caliber representing a wide geographical area, because, as the list of competitors indicates, the event is truly national in scope. The judges' international ranking will ensure fair and spirited racing and an indisputable outcome."

The 12 clubs that have been selected to compete in this year's U.S. Yacht Club Challenge are:

- Balboa Yacht Club, Balboa, Calif.
- Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, Bay St. Louis
- Bayview Yacht Club, Detroit, Mich.
- California Yacht Club, Marina del Rey, Calif.
- Chicago Yacht Club, Chicago, Ill. (Competitor, 1984, 1986)
- Eastern Yacht Club, Marblehead, Mass. (Winner, 1984; Competitor, 1986)
- Larchmont Yacht Club, Larchmont, N.Y. (Competitor, 1986)
- Long Beach Yacht Club, Long Beach, Calif. (Competitor, 1984)
- Manhasset Bay Yacht Club, Port Washington, N.Y.
- Newport Harbor Yacht Club,

Newport Beach, Calif. (Competitor, 1984; Winner, 1986)

► San Diego Yacht Club, San Diego, Calif. (Competitor, 1984, 1986)

► St. Francis Yacht Club, San Francisco, Calif. (Competitor, 1984)

The 1988 race series will be conducted as a Class IV event and will consist of five fleet races sailed on a boat-for-boat basis in Schock 35s. The boats, supplied by the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, will be equalized as closely as possible.

Crew members must be bona fide members of the yacht club they represent. To maintain the Challenge's stature as a true club event rather than a showcase for "superstar" skippers, individuals who have skippered a winning boat in the America's Cup, Olympics, Congressional Cup or in any other Olympic-class world championship may not steer a yacht. These champions can, however, serve in any other crew capacity.

The winning club will have its name and those of the winning crew engraved on the United States Yacht Club Challenge Cup.

First-, second- and third-place clubs will receive take-home trophies, winning crew members will receive Rolex Oyster Perpetual Submariner timepieces. Participation awards will also be presented.

FISHIN' TIPS FROM THE HUMMINBIRD PROS

by Larry Colombo

Before this month is over, there will be some really good fishing starting to happen. The first few warm days of pre-spring will bring the big largemouth out of winter dormancy. Mama big mouth starts to get hungry.

A surface temperature gauge can be one of your most important accessories. Two or three degrees of temperature difference can determine the most active areas to fish.

Because the water is still quite cold, the secrets to successful angling during this period are patience and speed of retrieve. If you fish an artificial lure, remember in cold water, the slower the better. Start out slowly then decrease your speed.

Two excellent lures for bass at this time are a single blade spinner bait or a jig and pork rind combination.

Use a fairly large spinner bait, allow it to sink to the bottom and work it as you would a plastic worm. Raise the rod tip, allow the lure to slowly fall back to the bottom, take up the slack and repeat. No trailer hook should be used with this method to avoid unnecessary hang ups. A medium-heavy action rod, about 5 1/2 foot in length works best.

Water color should help dictate lure color. In stained or muddy water use white or chartreuse. As the water clears use black or brown combinations.

White is always a good spinner bait color, no matter what the water color.

A 3/8 oz. jig with a pork chunk trailer can be one of the best, big-bass lures available. Fish it slow, set the hook hard. Always make the lure "touch something". Bump it off the bottom, against a stump or next to a piece of structure. The lure bumping a object will trigger a strike.

Tips from the Humminbird Pros are presented by Humminbird, Eufaula, Alabama. Good fishing

The River to throw first ball Saturday

POPLARVILLE— Pearl River College will open its baseball season Saturday against the Jones Junior College Bobcats at the William Carey College diamond in Hattiesburg.

The noon double-header marks the debut of PRC coach Jim Nightengale and a host of Wildcat freshmen. Only four sophomores are returning from last year's 28-13 team which was coached by Ned Eades.

"We're in good shape," said Nightengale, "even with all the freshmen I believe we will be very competitive."

Starting on the mound will be Poplarville sophomore Chris Bates, while freshman Todd Russell of Petal is scheduled to see action.

Sophomore Lee Mock of York, Ala. will be behind the plate, while sophs Richard White of Purvis is at first and James Rogers of Covington is at shortstop.

Jesse Logan of Bay St. Louis is the designated hitter.

Nightengale said the contest against Jones will be a good test for his Cats as they open their 46-game season. South Division competition is set to start Tuesday, March 1 against East Central in the new Wildcat diamond.

The PRC baseball diamond has a new fence around the outfield as well as new concession and restroom facilities and a covered grandstand.

All Pearl River College athletes will soon start enjoying a brand new 1,200 square-foot weight room.

Mike Nelson, PRC's athletic director, said the new addition will really add to the strength program which is designed for all male and female athletes.

The PRC Wildcat Club will pay for the carpeting of the room and installation of mirrors.

Dedeaux is high scorer in Wildcat win over Bulldogs

The Pearl River Wildcats came in to Marvin White Coliseum Thursday night hoping to gain revenge on South Division rival, Gulf Coast Bulldogs.

What the partisan crowd saw was two different games unfolding — one being a mostly Bulldog-dominated first half, and the other a Wildcat-dominated blowout in the second half. The blowout was the difference in the game, as the 'Cats avenged its earlier four-point loss in Perkinston by whipping the Bulldogs 85-73.

Bay St. Louis' Wes Dedeaux, playing in his last home game as a Wildcat, went out with a game-high 26 points to his credit, followed by freshman Jamal McSwain with 14 and sophomore Adrian McCray adding 13 to spur the River attack. For Gulf Coast, it was Joel Hatcher pumping in 15 points to lead the team, with Eric Hamilton not too far behind with 13 and Tony King tallied 12 for the 'Dogs.

The 'Cats started slow, but quickly rebounded back on the strength of hot shooting by Dedeaux and McSwain.

After trailing by as much as seven points (17-10 with 13:30 left in the first half), the hot hand on McSwain helped erase the deficit and lengthened the recaptured lead to as much as eight (45-37) with :58 left before halftime, which was where it stood going into the locker room — 'Cats 45, 'Dogs 37. Dedeaux pumped in 15 points in the first half along with 12 from McSwain to provide the big 'Cat lead at intermission.

The second half featured some strong play by the Wildcats' inside players. In a little under 10 minutes of play in the second half, the River went on a 26-11 spurt that all but sealed the fate of the 'Dogs. Dedeaux and McCray burned the nets to help put away Gulf Coast, much to the delight of everyone in the home stands.

Coach Peter Georgian started to substitute his players around the nine-minute mark of the second half with a big 23-point lead (71-48). The Bulldogs closed the gap against the reserves somewhat, but it wasn't enough, as the Wildcats got to 12-9 on the season going into the South Division tournament in Decatur February 15.

After the game, there was celebration in the 'Cat locker room. Sophomore center/forward Maurice Dozier had these comments on the big win.

"Well, despite my low scoring there, we still won. That's all that matters." Summing up the game best was Picayune's Adrian McCray, who said, "We needed to win that one. That was the sophomores' last home game."

Coach Peter Georgian was obviously pleased with his team's play in the game. "I feel good," he said.

When asked of what he expects next week in the South Division tournament, Georgian replied, "It's going to be tough, very tough. We're going to end up on Co-Lin's side of the (schedule), and it's going to be a matter of if we can play. We've got to win every one."

Mike Nelson, the head football coach at Pearl River Community College, says he is happy with his new recruits for the '88 football campaign.

Nelson began signing players last week from both the PRC district and from out-of-state to fill huge gaps in the offensive line and at skilled positions.

"We have signed everyone we went shopping for except three players," Nelson said. Hattiesburg's Frank Denard signed with a school in Arkansas, but Oak Grove's Stuart Ladner and Picayune's Jackson Hall are still available and wanted by Nelson.

Hall has already committed to PRC but not signed the letter of intent and Ladner is still looking over his offers. PRC is still on Ladner's list.

"We have to rebuild the entire offensive line," Nelson said. Three Picayune High players did sign with the Wildcats last week. Linebacker-defensive end Sondrey Taylor (225), offensive lineman Mason Stafford (235) and star running back Demetrie Hall (180) will all be on the Cat squad this coming fall. Prentiss High players signing with PRC include tackle Sedric Washington (280), quarterback-punter Keith Hutchins (157) and wingback Kurt White (214).

Other district players signed are defensive tackle Andrea Green (265) of West Marion; defensive end Michael McDonald (195) of North Forrest; wide receiver Kevin Polk (170) of Hattiesburg; and center-defensive end Chris Lacoste of Hancock North Central.

Out-of-state players inking with the Cats include offensive guard Bryan Couch (195) of Amite, La.; tight-end Ulysses Jones (230) of Donaldsonville, La.; defensive tackle Wallace Clark (250) of Church Point, La.; and center-linebacker Kevin Ina (230) of Franklin, La.; and Jason Dugas (230) offensive lineman from St. Martinville, La.

Two players who were at LSU last fall, but are students here this spring are Ben Harbin, a 250-pound center from Mobile and kicker Malter Scobel (180) of Bay St. Louis.

Pearl River Central linebacker Raymond Spiers, had signed with Mississippi College, but he is now with the Wildcats.

Several other 1987 graduates are now in school at Pearl River College and are listed on the Wildcat roster, including Bogalusa quarterback Eric Brister and wide-receiver Shane Hughes.

Other Louisiana players include linebacker Emanuel Zanders (215) and full-back-linebacker Mark Wilson of Amite, La. Tight-end Richie Clemons (220) of Mobile is on the squad, along with Pearl River, La. wide-receiver Terry Carter and Covington's Nolan Booker. Booker, a running back, played for the Wildcats in '86.

Poplarville center Jay Masoner (220) is on the team this spring, along with defensive back Marvin K. Smith of West Jefferson High in Harvey, La.

FOOTBALL DRILLS

Fifty-four Wildcat football players are participating in an off-season conditioning program until spring practice begins April 4th.

Mike Nelson, the 'Cats head coach, said the participants, which include 22 returning lettermen, run twice a week and workout with weights two days each week.

set for Saturday, March 19 and 26 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at McDonald Field in Bay St. Louis. Late registration is set for Saturday, April 2 from 10 a.m. to noon with tryouts to follow.

Fees for registration are $15 per child, $10 for the second child in the same family, and the third child registers free.

The next meeting of the league has been scheduled for Wednesday, March 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce, Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis.

Anyone interested in serving as coach, sponsor, concession stand worker or any other interested person should contact Mary Perkins at 467-6644 after 5 p.m.

The Bay Area Little League Softball is not affiliated at all with the Babe Ruth League, and further information is available by contacting Mary Perkins at 467-6644 after 5 p.m.

Bay Area Youth Soccer teams mushroom after rains

Bay Area Youth Soccer has been on hold for the past three weeks due to rain.

Finally, the clouds broke on Sunday, Feb. 21, and the teams began to make up games missed over the past several weeks.

Sunday, Feb. 21

Under 12, The Burger King Whoppers loss to Take One Video

1-0. Coach Leo Laurent stated that "the game was very played by both teams in a defensive match."

"The only goal scored being made in the final seconds on the game. The entire team played aggressively and with a lot of enthusiasm."

Coach Laurent congratulated the entire team on a game well played. Goalie Kevin Watts was cited for excellent defense with many saves at the goal.

Take One Video continues to lead the Under 12 division undefeated.

Under 10
In under 10 play, the K-Mart Rangers played in the mud against the Gateway Body Shop team. Even though the Rangers lost the game 4-1 it was a very exciting, fast paced game. Forward David Flowers scored the only goal for the Rangers.

Jerome Turcotte was named most improved for the game. The Coca Cola team remains in first place in the division, undefeated. McDonald Realty is second, and Gateway moves to third place in the age division.

Under 8

In Under 8 play, Rick's Trophies remains in first place and Gulf Coast Sweepers are in second place. Both teams are undefeated. Coach Steve Carver of the Gulf Coast Sweepers cited the entire team for excellent play.

Goals were scored by James Martinolich, Ronnie Vanney, and Dusty Carver.

Coach Jackie Kidd of the Charles H. Johnson, Inc. team cited Steven Gibson and Jay Saucier for defense in the game against the Sweepers. Brantley Ladner was credited with the teams single goal of the game.

The Golden Eagle team defeated the Peterman's team by a score of 1-0. Rick's Trophies defeated Coach Mullens team by a score of 6-0.

Girls Under-10

Coach Jeff Debenport's Magnolia under 10 girls soccer team, sponsored by the Kremer of Magnolia, was defeated by Bernard Construction 4-3, in an exciting afternoon game.

The Magnolia's team could not quite catch up with the Bernard Construction team but came very close as the final seconds of the game came to an end.

Coach Bernard Tusa of Bernard Construction stated "I am very proud of these girls as they remain undefeated on the Gulf Coast." Both teams played extremely well and are to be congratulated.

Under 14 Boys

Excalibur defeated Bay Blast in an exciting, well matched game. The BAYS under 14 team Excalibur won in a very exciting game by a score of 1-0 against Bay Blast. The two teams met for the first of a two game series on Sunday. Both teams will be competing in the MYSA District playoffs scheduled in April at Gulfport.

The Sunday afternoon game was played on a perfect day for soccer and was a contest of both balance and depth. The only goal in the game was scored by Right-winger Chad Ambrose in the last five minutes of play.

A through-pass from the overlapping midfielder allowed the wing to penetrate the defense for the score. Coach Jerry Ross of Excalibur commented "It was good execution of a text book play."

This young team is really coming together. They are realizing as a team what they need to do to be competitive." Both teams are to be congratulated for a fine effort. The two teams will play again in March for the second game of the series.

Raiders coast to double win

The Coast Episcopal High School Raiders basketball team continued their winning ways with a first place finish in the Riverside Invitational tournament held in New Orleans and hosted by Riverside Academy.

The Lady Raiders also took a first place in the tourney.

The Raiders' win was sweetened with sophomore Raider guard Billy Guice being selected as Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

The Raiders demonstrated their 'run and gun' offense against both Reserve Academy of Reserve, Louisiana 43 to 22 and Bible Way Academy of Jefferson 63 to 17.

Senior guard Chris Riggs, despite a pinched nerve in his left shoulder, contributed 23 points and sophomore Billy Guice added 27 points. The Raiders' fast break started by forwards senior Todd Purcell and junior Chip Grant was unstoppable.

Junior Sterling Thibodeaux, sophomores Scott Covode, and Hutson Lambert continued to play aggressive defense while Brandon Smith added the "zone breaking" three-point plays.

The Lady Raiders also captured first place in the Riverside Invitational Tournament held in New Orleans.

In the first round Coast Episcopal High School defeated Reserve Academy in a tough defensive battle by the score 19-11. In the championship round, the Lady Raiders defeated Riverside Academy 24-10.

Katherine Smith led all scorers with a combined total of 29 points and was named Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

Striped bass refunded

Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs has been awarded a $30,000 contract from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to continue efforts to reestablish natural populations of striped bass in Mississippi and Alabama.

Funding will support the sixth year of the Mississippi-Alabama Cooperative Striped Bass program sponsored jointly by the National Marine Fisheries Service and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The project involves raising striped bass fry in the Laboratory's semi-closed intensive culture facility and transfer of the fingerlings to the Claude Petet Mariculture Center at Gulf Shores, Ala. where the young fish are maintained until they are ready to be tagged and released into Mississippi and Alabama coastal streams.

The Laboratory has been involved in a variety of stocking projects since 1967 which have been aimed at reestablishing local striped bass sport fishing. GCRL project leader Larry Nicholson points to reports of striped bass catches in local waters which reflect the success of these replenishment efforts.

USM coach fills football staff

University of Southern Mississippi football coach Curley Hallman has made the most of his first five weeks on the job. The Golden Eagles' 15th head man has, in that short period, completed his staff, gotten heavily involved in recruiting and set tentative dates for spring practice.

New members of the coaching staff, not previously announced, include defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson, tight end coach Dave Voth, defensive line coach Mike Bugar and Freeman Horton and Steve Davis who both will remain off the previous staff.

Johnson joins USM from the East Carolina staff, Voth comes from Oklahoma and Bugar from West Georgia.

Concerning his new staff, Hallman said, "I feel like we have put together a great staff. They are, in most cases, the actual people I wanted, and, in all cases, the kind of coaches I wanted. It's a very knowledgeable staff in the X's and O's department, but even more importantly, a staff that is really good with young people. The players are important to them, and that's a factor that I took into consideration above all others, how good they would be with the players, and then how well they could coach.

"I have been around all the coaches, either coaching with or against them, somewhere over the years. All are fairly young, all good recruiters, and all will fit in well in the University community and the community at large.

"We put them on the road immediately and they'll stay busy there through national signing day. We'll then get back and get more involved as a staff. Our meetings to date have by necessity, been brief and have dealt mostly with recruiting."

Hallman also is nothing but optimistic concerning recruiting. "We've made up a lot of lost ground that occurred during the transition and the response we've gotten has been great," he said. "I think we'll have a good recruiting year. We'll concentrate on linemen and speed, but also will recruit the best available athletes. We'll put a lot of emphasis on recruiting athletes from within the state, while at the same time not neglecting the surrounding areas that have been so productive for USM in recent years."

While recruiting is the top current priority, Hallman also is looking ahead to spring work. "Tentatively, we're scheduled to start spring work March 21 and play the spring game April 23. We will work Monday through Thursday each week, allowing the players to have three days off each week. We'll keep the players heavily involved in their off-season program and we hope to have them bigger and quicker by the time we start spring work.

"I have been impressed with our athletes and their dedication to the off-season program, and I have been pleased with the reception the staff and I have received from our athletes. Certainly the same is true of our fans and the general public. I look forward to the time when the staff and I will have more time to devote to this important aspect of our program.

THE SEA COAST ECHO—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1988-3B

1988 USM football schedule released

Hattiesburg—Games with Metro Conference foes, Florida State, Virginia Tech, Louisville, and Memphis State, and games against SEC opponents Mississippi State and Auburn highlight the 1988 University of Southern Mississippi football schedule released by athletic director Bill McLellan.

The Golden Eagles, under first year head coach Curley Hallman, will open the season Sept. 3 against Stephen F. Austin and close the schedule at Louisiana Tech Nov. 12. There are no open dates on this year's schedule.

The opener against Stephen F. Austin will be the fourth meeting between the two teams and the first since 1948. Metro Conference foes Florida State, Louisville and Memphis State return from last year's schedule and conference member Virginia Tech is on the schedule for the first time since 1976.

The Eagles will play road games at Florida State, East Carolina, Tulane, Southwestern Louisiana, Auburn and Louisiana Tech.

The four on-campus games include Stephen F. Austin Sept. 3, Virginia Tech Sept. 17, Louisville Oct. 1 and Memphis State Oct. 29. The game with intrastate rival Mississippi State will be played in Mississippi Veterans' Memorial Stadium in Jackson.

USM has played all 11 teams on the '88 schedule previously and seven of the '88 foes were on the '87 slate.

Game times and ticket prices will be announced at a later date.

Gulf/Caribbean Fisheries Expo nears sellout

NEW ORLEANS—As the first Gulf/Caribbean Fisheries Expo draws near, exhibition space is rapidly disappearing with over 96 percent exhibitor booths reserved.

Scheduled for March 3-5, at The Rivergate in New Orleans, the trade show will emphasize the fisheries of the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean. Advance registrations have been pouring in from commercial fishermen and related industry representatives, already assuring the show of success.

Sponsored by H.L. Peace Expositions, Inc., who also publish The Fish Boat and The Work Boat magazines, the show was created by popular demand.

H.L. Peace Expositions has been sponsoring the International Work Boat Show for ten years and has tried to include programs for the area's commercial fisheries.

But with each successive show, it became increasingly clear of the necessity for a show tailored exclusively to the commercial fisheries of the Gulf and Caribbean. The Gulf/Caribbean Fisheries Expo has been designed exclusively to meet those needs.

The trade show will feature a wide variety of items, including engines, electronics, rigging, deck equipment, refrigeration, etc.—even boats. All the displays will have representatives ready to field any questions from show-goers.

In addition to the exhibits, a comprehensive complement of seminars has been scheduled to deal with the many issues facing the Gulf/Caribbean commercial fishing market.

With the cooperative sponsorship of the Louisiana Sea Grant College Program and the Gulf and South Atlantic Fisheries Development Foundation, the seminars have been divided into five categories: seafood processing and developing fisheries; finfish; crab; shrimp; and a meeting of the Concerned Shrimpers' of America.

The importance of the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean in world fishing is well documented. Gulf and adjoining states account for better than one-third the value of all U.S. commercial landings of finfish and shellfish. Six of the nation's top ten fishing ports for landed value are on the Gulf Coast.

Beverage as a co-sponsor and their participation allows us to continue this tradition.

"Something else we want to do this year is recognize those people who have run the race every year. Since our records are incomplete, we're asking people to call the bank before the race and let us know who you are."

The race attracts serious local runners, as well as weekend joggers. The course winds through Fairhope and along Mobile Bay. Fairhope residents traditionally stand along the race course and cheer the runners on. Fairhope High School cheerleaders will again be present on the course. The chase is held each year in conjunction with the Eastern Shore Arts and Crafts Festival, which many participants attend after the race.

A ten-mile fun run/walk will be held immediately after the 10K run. For the second year, walkers are invited to participate. Baldwin County school children and their parents are being encouraged to walk for their school. A $1 donation will be made to the school designated on every 2 mile participant's entry blank.

Registration forms are available at area sporting good stores and all Central Bank branches in Mobile and Baldwin counties. Registration is $7 before March 1 and $8 after that. Mailed entries must be postmarked no later than March 7.

For more information, call 928-9222, or write Spring Fever Chase, Central Bank of the South, Post Office Drawer 489, Fairhope, Ala. 36533.

SSC to host Biloxi Tuesday in baseball season opener

The St. Stanislaus Rockchaw baseball team will have their hands full Tuesday when they entertain the powerful Biloxi Indians in the season-opening baseball game for both squads.

Coch Mike Gemelli takes over as head coach, replacing Rod Herring who guided the Rocks to a second-place finish in district 4A last season.

The Rockchaws have lost only three seniors from last year's team who finished 10-7 overall and 5-3 in district play.

"I would have to say that the key word for us this year is 'stability,'" said Coach Gemelli. "We are returning a lot of starters from last year's squad. We have worked the boys hard during our pre-season workouts, and have really stressed fundamentals."

"The impression I get is that our team was not satisfied to finish second behind d'Iberville last year. In order to win it, we must stay hungry for victories. We don't face any weak teams on our schedule," stated Gemelli.

Hitting has always been a strong point of the Rockchaws. Returning to lead the team are catcher William Scarborough, pitcher Cedric Smith, outfielders Rocky Rhodes and Yasin Shabazz, and infielders Scott Heitzmann, Greg Schruoff and Shane Sigsworth.

Newcomers are Marc Mathern at third base, Gino Ascani who can play both infield and outfield, and Joe Lee who should anchor the right field spot.

The Rocks should have the nucleus of a solid pitching staff.

Sophomore Cedric Smith, a starter since 8th grade, and fastballer Tom Zant will be the primary starting pitchers. Lloyd Nicaud, a junior who throws with good location, will also start several ballgames. Coach Gemelli is also impressed with Greg Schruoff and Scott Peterson, who both should see action on the mound.

The outfield for the Rockchaws appears to be Rocky Rhodes in left, Yasin Shabazz in center, and Joe Lee in right. Gino Ascani may very well break into the lineup as opening day nears.

Infielders will include Marc Mathern at third, Scott Heitzmann at shortstop, and Greg Schruoff at second base. At first base, Lloyd Nicaud, Shane Sigsworth, and Bert Dean have all been impressive.

"We will emphasize to everyone the need for us to play team baseball. We have so much potential, it's going to be difficult to decide on a starting lineup," said Gemelli.

Game time next Tuesday, Mar. 1 for the SSC-Biloxi baseball game is 3:45 p.m.

Lady Wildcats overcome blitz

After a shaky first half, the Pearl River Lady Wildcats overcame a shooting blitz by Utica's Andrea Smith down the stretch to post a 72-61 victory.

Once again, the Lady 'Cats were led by freshman Antrice McGill with a game-high 27 points, backed up by Poplarville's Mary Henry with 17 and Columbia's Millie Wilks with 10 to lift the Lady 'Cats to a 15-6 overall record.

Andrea Smith led the Lady Bulldogs with a 25-point effort (including four three-pointers, two of them back-to-back in the second half), along with Valerie Yates with 11. Yates was the only Utica starter to score in double figures, with Smith coming off the bench to lead the Lady Bulldogs.

Both teams came out tight the first half, with numerous turnovers being caused and not a lot of scoring. The Lady 'Cats jumped out to an early 8-0 lead before Utica's Patricia Grant scored the Lady Bulldogs' first basket with 17:40 to go in the first half.

Smith came in off the bench and proceeded to do most of the scoring for Utica, with a three-pointer with 14:20 to go followed by two buckets and another three-point basket in about a 5:00 span. The Lady Bulldogs surged ahead by four (19-15) with 8:35 left before halftime and held tough until PRC's McGill went on a scoring tear of her own, with four free-throws and four big baskets to give the Lady 'Cats a slim 29-28 lead going into the locker room.

The second half saw strong team play by the Lady 'Cats, with everyone on the floor contributing. The defense rose up and stoned the shooting streak of Smith with steals and forced turnovers, and suddenly the River lead was (52-41 with 8:24 left in the game).

The momentum swung toward Utica briefly due to Antrice McGill's fourth personal foul with 8:20 to go and a technical foul called on coach Polly Kirkland. Andrea Smith bombed her third three-pointer to cut the lead to 53-47, but two big free throws and an inside basket by Norma Pendarvis got the Lady 'Cats back on track.

From then on, the Lady 'Cats dominated the boards. Millie Wilks went on a scoring blitz of her own, along with Mary Henry, to help fuel the Lady 'Cats on to yet another big South Division win.

The Lady 'Cats will play Gulf Coast Thursday at 6 p.m. in the last home game of the year.

Pearl River 'Cats sign scholarships

A record twelve players off the 1987 Pearl River College football team have signed scholarships to play for senior colleges.

Two Wildcat players who played on the '86 PRC team have also been signed.

Center Buddy Stephens of Huntsville, AL and offensive guard Jordan Bradford, an '86 graduate who played for St. Stanislaus in Bay St. Louis, have signed with Delta State University in Cleveland.

All-State offensive tackle Devin Rogers of Chalmette and tight-end Tracey Boyd of Crowley will return to their home state to play for Southern University in Baton Rouge and linebacker Wendell Smith of New Orleans will head for Prairie View A&M in Prairie View, TX.

Outstanding running backs Jerry Rush of Peachtree, GA and Thurman Geathers of Georgetown, SC have also signed scholarships. Rush will head for Alabama A&M University in Normal, and Geathers will head a list of players to Oregon Tech in Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Cornerback Larry Copeland of Bassfield and free safety-punter Donnie Powell of Shreveport will also play for Oregon Tech.

Three players are headed for Langston University in Oklahoma. Offensive guard Greg Bonds of Paducah, KY; defensive tackle Warren Hammond of Lumberton and '86 graduate Marshall Roberts of Covington, LA have signed with the NAIA school.

Bassfield's Ramsom Funchess, a linebacker, has signed with Tulsa University in Tulsa, OK. Offensive guard Trace McRaney of Bay St. Louis will play for Arkansas University in Monticello, AK.

"This may be the most Wildcats to ever sign off one team," said Mike Nelson, the Wildcats' head coach. "It's good to see these players have a chance to continue their education and football play."

Nelson said he would start signing players for the '88 Wildcats on February 10th. "We have a lot of holes to fill, but there is a lot of talent in our district and surrounding area," said Nelson.

The Wildcats will start spring practice in April here on the Poplarville campus.

"Looking for this!"

Ole Miss Athletic Drive gets $50,000

UNIVERSITY—The University of Mississippi has announced a $50,000 gift to its athletic fund drive from alumnus and businessman Hardy Moore Graham of Union City, Tenn.

His contribution is the largest single gift to the Drive for Athletics at Ole Miss.

Graham, a 1934 graduate of the Ole Miss Law School, is a partner in the Union City Coca Cola Bottling Co. and a semi-retired attorney who specializes in tax law and estate planning.

The goal of the Drive for Athletics is to raise more than $8 million to complete the new Oxford-University Baseball Stadium, renovate Vought-Hemingway Stadium, construct a new indoor practice facility and improve the track, golf course and tennis complex.

Graham practiced law with his father in his hometown of Meridian before joining the Navy in World War II. He moved to Union City after his discharge in 1946 and joined the Jayces, where he chaired many projects. He was named the city's first Outstanding Young Man and served as mayor from 1950-58. He was also president of the Union City Rotary Club and is a Paul Harris Fellow.

Graham has remained a faithful supporter of the University, becoming the 28th member of the Chancellor's Trust and providing a $250,000 unitrust to the School of Law.

He and his wife Cora have two sons—R. Newell and Hardy P. Graham, who are also Ole Miss graduates.

Others wishing to help with the athletic fund drive should send their tax-deductible contributions to: The Drive for Athletics, The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677.

Hancock County Branch, NAACP stages ninth annual Mother of the Year Banquet

Gulfside Assembly was the location of the ninth annual Mother of the Year Banquet Jan. 16 sponsored by Hancock County Branch, NAACP.

Marilyn Smith, branch president, was mistress of ceremonies.

Rev. Arthur Lewis Jr. of V.C.J. Methodist Church opened the program with a scripture reading and Rev. Lee L. Morris of Macedonia Baptist Church gave the invocation.

Greetings were given by Rev. Wendell P. Taylor, executive director of Gulfside Methodist Assembly.

A solo by Phillip Williams of the Lord's Prayer was the beginning of a musical tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. under the direction of Alfrasier Acker. St. Rose's Gospel Choir stirred the audience with moving renditions of such favorites as 'Touch Me' and many others.

Rev. Tart, the guest speaker, was well received as he spoke about youth education.

After Rev. Tart's compelling speech, the musical tribute continued. Ms. Deborah Deloach and Ms. Chiara Ishem, two youths from the community, thrilled the audience with popular solos. Other solos were performed by Robert Weaver and Robert Williams.

Next, the Mother of the Year contestants were honored. Ms. Josephine Handy was presented a plaque as runner-up, and Mrs. Sarah Middleton, mother of two sons, Nathan 11 and Nicholas 7, was crowned Mother of the Year for 1988.

Sarah was crowned and presented a dozen long-stemmed red roses by Ms. Clementine Williams, daughter of Ms. Louise Williams who was last year's winner.

Next, Ms. Clementine Williams and Mr. Willie Bradley were presented the Ethel Weaver and Public Service Award, respectively.

The Albert J. Fairconnetue scholarship awards were given to Darren Hazeur, runner-up, worth $300, and winner Mutakabbir Shabazz, worth $400.

The 200 guests who attended once again applauded Rev. Tart for his enthralling speech, the choir for the great vocalizations, and Rev. Taylor for the timely and delicious catered meal.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED

The following day, Sunday, Jan. 17, Washington Street park was officially named and dedicated Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Park.

A march led by the Ebony Pearls whose sponsor is Sandra Price, began at noon from Valena C. Jones Methodist Church.

The participants who numbered more than 100 gathered momentum as onlookers joined in as they neared the park.

They proudly wore Dr. King pins, distributed pictures and sang 'We Shall Overcome.'

At the park Ms. Smith gave greetings and welcomed the mayor of Bay St. Louis, Victor Frankiewicz.

Speakers were Willie Bradley, Charles Johnson, Harry Farve and Yasin Shabazz.

Everyone was impressed by the large number that turned out at the park.

They were encouraged to keep the spirit alive and get involved with the children and the school system.

The Mayor's Proclamation was presented to Ms. Smith.

Radio Station Foxy 96 provided their video van for music and videos after the program.

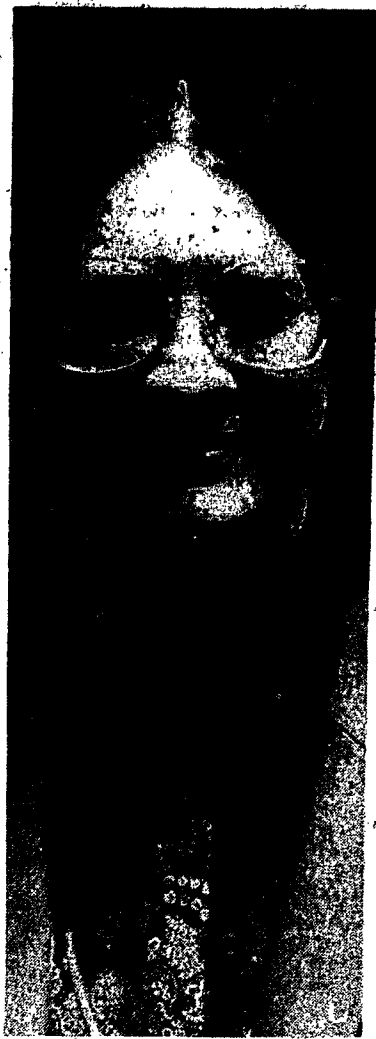

The youth and education committee wish to thank the entire community for making this a memorable occasion.

Many friends donated refreshments which were served throughout the evening.

St. Rose provided tables and chairs. J. T. Hall provided the tent. Pedro Williams set up the tables and chairs and city workers set up the podium and generators.

Because of the help from all, the dedication will be remembered for a long time.

De Montluzin's book expected to become standard reference

Dr. Emily Lorraine de Montluzin, Bay St. Louis native and professor of history at Francis Marion College in Florence, S.C., recently published her first book entitled 'The Anti-Jacobins, 1798-1800: The Early Contributors to the Anti-Jacobin Review.'

Dr. de Montluzin's book is the first study of its kind to examine the British conservative periodical of the 1790's known as the Anti-Jacobin Review and to identify its previously unknown contributors. It is expected to become the standard reference work on the subject.

According to Dr. de Montluzin, publication of her book would not have been possible without a generous subsidy presented to her in 1986 by the Francis Marion College Foundation. "I am very grateful to the foundation for funding this endeavor and hope they will continue to provide such meaningful support for my colleagues," she says.

Research for the book was further assisted by three grants from the College's Faculty Research Committee and by travel funds from Duke University.

"I've been working on this subject since 1973," Dr. de Montluzin says. "When I was doing research in London for my doctoral dissertation, I realized that no one had ever written more than a few paragraphs on this very important periodical."

As a specialist in 18th and 19th century British press history, she saw the significance the Review had on the French Revolution era and decided to pursue the topic.

According to Dr. de Montluzin, the 1790's in Britain saw much unrest and genuine alarm among Church-and-King conservatives, who feared that the principles of revolutionary France under Robespierre's Jacobin dictatorship might take root in the British Isles.

Some seventy conservative contributors wrote anonymously for the Anti-Jacobin Review, attempting to prevent the spread of Jacobin radicalism by defending "the established order."

Dr. de Montluzin was fortunate during her research to make use of an annotated staff copy of the Review in the British Library's collection in London which indicated in the editor's own handwriting the names of the seventy contributors to the early numbers of the publication. This, Dr. de Montluzin points out, was only the beginning.

"I had the names of the 'anonymous' contributors, but I then faced the task of tracking down those names," she explains. "By using obituaries in the Gentleman's Magazine and The Times of London, sets of contemporary letters and memoirs, alumni records from Oxford and Cambridge, clergy lists, and membership rosters for professional bodies such as the Inns of Court, the Royal College of Physicians, and the Society of Antiquaries, I was able to identify most of the men who wrote for the Anti-Jacobin Review during its formative period."

She spent years putting personal facts with names in what she calls "a colossal piece of eighteenth-century detective work!"

Her efforts will certainly be advantageous to the modern student of press history during the French Revolution era. She anticipates that the book will become a useful reference book for those seeking knowledge on the Anti-Jacobin Review and its effect on the era in which it existed.

The book is being marketed in Great Britain and the Commonwealth nations by the Macmillan Press Ltd and in the United States by St. Martin's Press. The publication date has been set for April 14.

Dr. de Montluzin plans to present an autographed copy to the Francis Marion College Foundation for deposit in the College's James A. Rogers Library.

Dr. de Montluzin, a 1968 graduate of Bay St. Louis High School, in 1970 received her bachelor of arts degree summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Newcomb College of Tulane University.

After earning her doctorate in history at Duke University in 1974 she joined the faculty of Francis Marion College, where she teaches courses in British and European cultural and intellectual history.

She has had several articles published in scholarly journals in Great Britain and in the United States.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Rene de Montluzin of Bay St. Louis and the late Mr. de Montluzin.

HYDRO TOMATOES

Mississippi ETV's "Farmweek" goes down on the farm at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Feb. 29, for some lessons in high-tech growing techniques for tomatoes.

Tyson Gair and the "Farmweek" staff will visit Richard Schmidt of Clarksdale on the Feb. 29 edition to examine his facility for growing hydroponic tomatoes. Although the operation is just getting under way, Schmidt hopes to be producing bountiful crops of tomatoes in three or four years.

A production of Mississippi ETV and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

The ABC's of birthing are now spelled LDR.

Slidell Memorial's New LDR Now Gives You The Choice Of All-In-One-Room Birthing. And It's As Easy As 1-2-3.

Physicist will discuss extraterrestrial civilizations

HATTIESBURG— An internationally known physicist who believes in extraterrestrial civilizations will speak at the University of Southern Mississippi March 1.

Dr. Frank Drake—dean of natural sciences and professor of astronomy and astrophysics at the University of California, Santa Cruz—will present "The Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence" at USM's University Forum lecture at 7 p.m. in Bennett Auditorium.

One of the world's leading scientists for the past three decades, Drake has been involved in many scientific advances—including the discovery of the radiation belts of Jupiter, early observational studies of pulsars and the search for extraterrestrial life.

The 57-year-old astrophysicist constructed the first interstellar message transmitted via radio waves from earth for the benefit of any extraterrestrial—the "Arecibo Message of November, 1974."

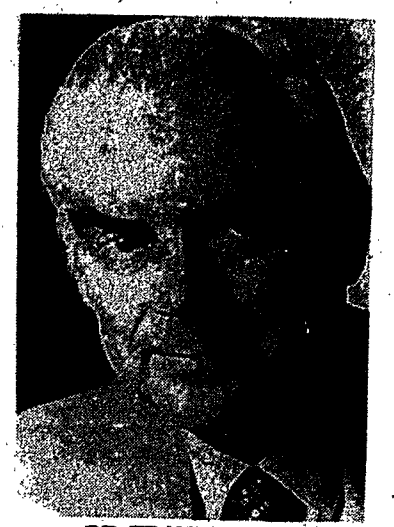

In addition to the "Arecibo Message," three additional messages utilizing techniques and methods developed by Drake and his colleagues also have been sent to deep space—the Pioneer 10 and 11 plaques, and the record aboard the Voyager spacecraft.

Drake is a member of many professional organizations and has authored more than 150 articles and books.

All University Forum events are sponsored by the USM Honors College and are open to the public at no charge.

For more information, call the USM Honors College at (601) 266-4533.

TOURNAMENT PARTICIPANTS—Students from St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis participated in the 14th annual Mississippi Science and Mathematics Tournament held at Mississippi College Feb. 4-5. The tournament, sponsored by the Mississippi College Departments of Science and Mathematics, recognized

UM alumni, students, faculty asked to nominate top teacher

UNIVERSITY—University of Mississippi students, faculty and alumni are being asked to recognize their favorite Ole Miss professor with a nomination for the University's 1988 Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award.

Since 1966, Ole Miss has recognized excellence in teaching with the campus wide award, which is presented each year at Honors Day. Each recipient receives $2,000 and has his or her name engraved among those of previous winners on a plaque which hangs in the Chancellor's office. This year's winner will be announced at the April 7 ceremonies.

Former award recipients are not eligible. Active faculty who have received the award are Dr. Natalie Schroeder, Dr. Guthrie T. Abbott, Dr. J. Ronald Bartlett, Dr. Ronald F. Borne, Dr. William Champion, Dr. James W. Davis, Dr. Vaughn Grisham, Dr. Jere R. Hoar, Dr. Gloria D. Kellum, Harry Eugene Peery, Dr. Jeanette C. Phillips, Dr. Wilbrod St. Amand Jr., Dr. John Winkle III and Dr. Kwang-Sik Yun.

Letters of nomination should be the work of, and signed by, one person and be no longer than two pages. Letters should include examples of teaching excellence and reasons why the nominee is deserving of the award. Send nominations to The Chancellor, The University of Mississippi, University, MS 38677, to arrive no later than Friday, March 11.

A committee named by Chancellor Gerald Turner will make the final selection after reviewing all of the nominations. Members of that committee, which is being chaired by Dr. Guthrie T. Abbott, are Dr. J. Ronald Bartlett, James N. Butler, Dr. William Champion, Dr. James W. Davis, Dr. Jeanette C. Williams, Dr. Natalie Schroeder, Dr. Kwang-Sik Yun and Associated Student Body President Pam Kloha.

JOE GEX, senior at St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, has been selected "Senior of the Month" for January by the faculty. An honor roll student, he is a member of the National Honor Society and is in his sixth year at St. Stanislaus. He is a member of the varsity football team, varsity track team and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is secretary of the Key Club and a member of Students Against Driving Drunk. He is listed in Who's Who in American High Schools and represented St. Stanislaus this past summer at Mississippi Boys' State. He is an Eagle Scout and also has been named Outstanding Senior of the Month by the Hancock County Exchange Club. Gex is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gex of Bay St. Louis. (SSC photo)

Pass High junior competing for U.S. Senate scholarship

Jonathan Emerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Emerson of Pass Christian, was recently selected as Pass Christian High School's nominee for the Japan-U.S. Senate Scholarship Program competition. As Pass High's nominee, Jonathan will compete with high school juniors statewide for the two state scholarships to Japan this summer.

The Japan-U.S. Senate scholarship program, a unique international educational exchange for U.S. high school students, has been funded by the Japanese government since 1981. It provides full scholarships to send 100 American exchange students to Japan for a summer.

During his high school years Emerson has been in Student Council, Beta Club, Science Club, and French Clubs. He is also on the newspaper staff, has been in the band, and has participated in the Quiz Bowl.

Emerson has received numerous academic awards during his years at Pass Christian High School. He was named Superior Underclassman Achiever in the Spring of 1987 for the highest underclassman academic average in the school.

In addition, he received the Chemistry Award, received first place in the school Science Fair and second place in the Regional Science Fair.

He also won second place in the Rotary Journalism Scholarship competition.

Emerson was chosen as one of twelve semi-finalists state-wide to be interviewed for this exchange program.

ETV Brief

GOLDEN AGE

Television had a "golden age" and the hallmark of that period was live drama of remarkable richness and diversity. It shared the airwaves with the tried-and-true mixture of westerns, cops and robbers and adventure shows.

It will also examine the mini-series, docudramas and drama made abroad when it airs at 8 p.m., Monday, Feb. 29, on Mississippi ETV.

"Drama," the sixth hour of ETV's "Television" series, brings television drama up to date, through the prime-time soaps and such innovative series as "Hill Street Blues," "Cagney and Lacey"

TOURNAMENT PARTICIPANTS—Students from Our Lady Academy in Bay St. Louis participated in the 14th annual Mississippi Science and Mathematics Tournament held at Mississippi College Feb. 4-5. The tournament, sponsored by the Mississippi College Departments of Science and Mathematics, recognized
